APPOMATTOX AND BUCKINGHAM TIMES.

DEVOTED TO THE GENERAL AND INDUSTRIAL INTERESTS OF APPOMATTOX AND BUCKINGHAM COUNTIES.

JOB WORK A SPECIALTY.

No. 44. APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA, JANUARY 3. 1906. $1.00 PER ANNUM.

SUNDAY SERMON

Scholarly Discourse By Rev. Edward Niles.

N. Y.—The Rev. Edward ched at the White Church ening from II Timothy III:5: form of godliness, but hav- the power thereof." He stance lends enchantment w" is true of time as well The older we grow, the ulate appear the imagined ld. Christian believers are r eyes in proportion to the f centuries that intervene e covers of every volume of ether written in one age , are the well-nigh certain over these time of extreme s, unequaled love of money, indifference to spiritual followed by laudations of blic age as the golden era of ty.

nstruction of conditions exist- ese New Testament churches terials afforded us in the arrant no such assumption ithen were rampant, incon- ves numerous, backsliders ly frequent. The things of e cogent appeal. The husks el often satisfied to the dis- its kernel. Paul's descrip- last days" was based upon ught him. As he penned the of our text, he probably had e fellow communicants who arm of godliness, but denied ithereof.

iden outward changes have ch, kingdoms have come of nages have died and been ench order and ritual been met- ook. Human nature is un- s time or clime. So the New this is not a graveyard, with our only antiquarian interest, pentographic of contemporary s of it.

rough of Brooklyn are 150,- to holding to the Protestant ren oldness. While statistics ot to figure out how many is in Protestant power thereof, ward power were identical, not wo buildings where divine wor- ge held to-night would have ernat and every theatre and ere be utilized for overflow ford ional of "deny" has as its to ig "not to seek." "Hold- af godliness, they have not e power." The world has or about hypocrites. I be- ery against them is on- attrition to their numbers. as hypocrite to-day is a have made frequent hunts e despite the most diligent e seldom found him.

er of those called hypo- ould rightly be catalogued is legion. They are not ceive others. They suc- striving to deceive them- ded with the apparite- it trappings of godliness, no further. Attendants bvices of the church, mem- porters of its outward ac- ing fancy themselves to be ded as Christians, they prehend what disrepute ten the name by their in- ies the real article. Their ng wrongly taken for hy- submit to the drudgery parity troublesome com- mpose upon themselves. at reason for so many at membership is be- st re become dissatisfied with h to seek the reality, so one in this congrega- of godliness. You look ile to criticise in what allegiance is so little you do on al criticism. The trouble and on do not. You may here to predigest your to relieve you from of the Bible, to rep- ach not only in classic ment, to be your proxy work for souls, your e battle is on be- evil, while you go d household ways dur- Lord and on Sunday enjoy the news, criticise the ser- ment I called me to any like ness been any such taint repudiate it. I am point out the forms ans of obtaining the eeds of our invent- bodily transferred a Greek here ren- the word dynamo. ast as the railroad the third rail, as evated structure on Bridge. But the ceaseless eyesore un- with the main line. eless until related e, until the power, sends forth the mbling the cars to wage-earners to and of everyday toil. rn would be so in- two years such a an enterprise for ion are essential as the accessories of ministers. Bibles d have been perpet- ingly ordained and be good for making heaven "go" upon ives, they have no ce of godliness gener- lives must electrify o set encumbrances. that pertained to lead others Scripture commission gives you on will re you availing your- ted, ore age? I find no verse finitely hich reads "Be good minus a Christian." I find live he ed over, "Do good." Him not colorlessness. It y. It is ever positive. y is peculiarly abhor- ose biography is epi- went about doing d thou wert either ile message to such "Because thou art ither cold nor hot, ther the mistakes, bet- hat come from activ- absence of either ose religion consists servances, but in in- semblance, but in od is a living God, ction in half-alive must only serve Him ust also live in His dynamo of power work and your light Church! Church!" as

y than other people, a religious bird aving from a steeple,

Forms are n Liturgical churc is less formal in phraseology if the first come latter from the confesses and

I often But do I And do to with Words The Lo Nor will Whose pe

Spiritual for vasive as the electricity. T the concentra in ourselves, for good to form. We in our Prophet lings. We rest accepting

CAPITAL, $2

3 P Cent Savings Department

Money in a Strong

NTS NAT'L B

CHMOND, VA.

0; SURPLUS and PROFITS,

DEPOSITS, $4,000,000.

FURNITURE

FOR

XMAS

AND

FLEENOR

For FURNITURE

1008-10 Main St., Lynchburg, Va

BURFORD

THE PEOPLE'S ST

have a full line of Holiday goods c

and Toys of all kinds, and will be pl

nd examine our stock before buying.

in this. Our Cloak department newest money will buy and marked

Take electric elevator for this depar

and you will be well repaid We ha ent of Sample Hats that sold from ee thrown out at 69 to 98c.

Main Street O. G. BURFORD

EADY RE

UR FALL AND WINT

Men's and

CLOTHIN

nd in every way the

p ... ready to c

ny in one of our goo

Yo

ATHAM & M

Clothiers, Men's and Boys

P. MAIN AND ELEVENT

LYNCHBURG, V

GREG

OUR GREAT ST

AND WIN

mplete and wo

S GOODS—in B

in Black and

FABRICS P

&c. &c.

KS and FURS

LINERY

they appear in

ts and bags

need for Win

COME TO SE

A. McC

COR. MAIN AN

CHBURG,

A Little Parable.

Hatred and Selfishness fell with each other because they that their deeds were alike ev

So they sought Beelzebub a him to marry them.

"I will do it," he said, "bu be on one condition."

"What is the condition asked.

"That the two of you, who made one, shall take a new

"It is agreed," they said.

So they were wedded with pomp and ceremony.

"Now what is our new nam immediately inquired.

"Human Folly," was the "That name hereafter will inc both of you, as, indeed, it pract has done heretofore."

So the united two wander ov earth, covering it with unhapp and frequently we refer to th their former names, but not t does their wedded name appe either or both of them.—San cisco Call.

Lofty Examples.

The loftiest examples of cha vction, self-sacrifice, heroism, fidence and patriotism ever kn history have found their motive spiration in the Christian re Henry B. Williams.

A Little Parable.

Haired and Selfishness fell with each other because they that their deeds were alike ev

So they sought Beelzebub a him to marry them.

"I will do it," he said, "bu be on one condition."

"What is the condition asked.

"That the two of you, who made one, shall take a new

"It is agreed," they said.

So they were wedded with pomp and ceremony.

"Now what is our new nam immediately inquired.

"Human Folly," was the "That name hereafter will inc both of you, as, indeed, it pract has done heretofore."

So the united two wander ov earth, covering it with unhapp and frequently we refer to th their former names, but not t does their wedded name appe either or both of them.—San cisco Call.

APPOMATTOX.

INTERESTING STORIES ABOUT HOME FOLKS.

Our Correspondents Relate the News of the County.

Southside.

New Year's greetings to TIMES and all whom it reaches and may 1906 be the best to all of us. Owing to the illness of a member of our family we had the privilege of watching the old year out and the new year in. As we sat by the glowing wood fire and reviewed the days, and weeks, and months of the year that is just past—as we thought over our mercies, of the guiding Hand that had led us "in a way that we know not," our hearts are filled with thankfulness. Verily, "the Lord is good and His mercy endureth forever." There has been sickness, sorrow and affliction all around us—the stealthy tread of the destroyer has been in our midst and in many homes some loved one is missing, and many hearts are burdened with sorrow. May all the sorrowing ones have the "peace that passeth understanding."

Christmas was unusually quiet among us. There were several social gatherings—Miss Mary Plunkett entertained a number of her friends Wednesday night and a number of visitors had a merry time at "Mountain View" Friday night and Saturday there was a pleasant gathering at Mr. J. P. Cole's. Miss Vivian Coleman and her sisters, Eleanor and Ruth entertained a large number of their friends Saturday evening. Miss Vivian will return to her school at Charlottesville on Wednesday.

Miss Joe Warren and Mr. Davis of Pamplins and Mr. Charlie Coleman of Pittsylvania were guests at Mr. J. T. Cole's during the holidays.

Messrs. Robert Oder of Pocahontas, and Conrad Oder, of Lynchburg, visited Mr. Tom Oder recently.

All of Mr. T. A. Coleman's sons and his daughter, Mrs. Ferguson spent Christmas at the old home.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Eliza Oder is getting about again.

Mrs. J. S. Plunkett is better. Miss Mary Plunkett is visiting her uncle in Lynchburg.

Mr. George Coleman, Sr., while hauling wood, a few days ago received a bow in the eye which entirely destroyed the sight.

Misses Ola and Ethel Abbitt who have been at school in Lynchburg returned home for Xmas.

Mr. Hubbard Coleman, express messenger is at home

The New Year has dawned bright and beautiful, may it be typical of the life that lies before us all this year.

Glenfall.

The holidays opened very quietly in this neighborhood.

On the evening of the 21st, a beautiful reception was given in honor of the marriage of Mr. Jas. Scruggs and Miss Rosa Wright, at the home of Mr. S. A. Scruggs. Numerous friends and relatives were present, as well as the bridal party from Buckingham. A most bountiful supper was served—reminds one of the typical old Virginia style. After the supper which was much enjoyed, the guests repaired to the spacious parlor where sweet music was made on the violin, banjo and guitar by Messrs. Childers Bros. and Mr. Sam Rector, of Lynchburg.

We was spent most delightfully when "the iron tongue of midnight" tolled the hour of twelve the guests reluctantly, wishing the bride and groom a long and happy life. The bride wore a handsome dress of white silk and carried a number of white carnations ended very pretty. The along ride very happy.

side of Christmas tree at Mount Pleasant, on the night of the 25th. The race the male contestants made was most exciting, where it left the right of the guards and did not stop until it reached the bridge over the Mus-ket-a-tuck, a distance of about two miles. The freight was running not less than thirty miles an hour, and the lantern kept watch on the mails from the caboose as it made its record breaking run.—Indianapolis Star.

It is calculated that in London alone about 6000 persons regularly make a living by begging.

who were trained by Misses Edna Burge and Jennie Turner were very enjoyable and quite a success. Mr. Neilie Moore, who acted as Santa Claus amused every one. There was a similar entertainment at Red Oak on Friday—hope some one will write it up. This scribe could not attend.

Mr. Andrew Anderson, formerly of Amherst county, now a conductor on the railroad, visited the hospitable home of Mr. F. A. Walton during the holidays. He is a popular young man.

Miss Verona Bell is at home for a brief time.

Miss Mollie Bagby visited this neighborhood during the holidays.

Messrs Willie and Dallas Walton visited Spout Spring during the holidays and on their return stopped over at the home of Mr. John Patteson. There must be some attraction at that point for one or both.

Messrs. Calvin Mitchell and Jim Christian of Amherst, visited the home of Mr. E. A. Walton during the holidays. Mrs. Otho Patteson of Waddsboro was also a guest of the same home.

Fore's Store.

Allow us to relate a few of our happenings. We are glad to know that Christmas passed off quietly.

Mr. D. N. Davidson of Richmond College spent his holidays here with his parents and friends, much to their delight. Mr. C. E. Agee also spent his holiday with his parents here.

Miss Mary Fore, postal clerk at Georgel, Va., is at home on a vacation.

We are sorry to note the death of the little two-year old son of Mr and Mrs. Henry Goin from pneumonia. We extend to them our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. While they mourn their sad loss they are comforted with the sweet thought that he is at rest and may they live so that they may meet him in Heaven.

Mr. W. E. Agee has been very much indisposed for the last few days.

Mr. C. D. Ferguson is moving today to the old Jones place where he expects to live in the future.

We know you will be crowded with news this week so I'll make my letter brief on that account

Wishing all a happy and prosperous New Year.

Hixburg.

On Christmas night the young people of the neighborhood gathered at the home of Mr. Otis Gilliam and had one of the most enjoyable dances ever attended in old Hixburg. At eleven o'clock a sumptuous supper was served, after which dancing continued until late. Mrs. H. E. Gilliam and Gertrude Ford were the chaperones.

Mrs. Jack Davis of Waidsboro, Prof. E. S. Ligon, of Newport News, Miss Alice Gilliam, of Stapleton, Miss Lillian Glenn, of Evington, Miss Carrie Hix, of Roanoke, Mr. Jim Marshall of Bluefield, Mr. Herman Glenn, of Roanoke, Mr. Willie Gilliam and Mr. Thos. Gilliam of Greensboro, N. C., spent Christmas with friends and relatives in Hixburg.

There was a reunion of Gilliams at "Rosedale" on Christmas day.

Miss Helen Montague is the charming guest of Miss Clara Ford. Had she made her visit sooner, our honorable Governor would probably have had more votes from this precinct (if she can carry votes as she captivates hearts.

Messrs. Marshall Gilliam, Dan Hix, and Capt. J. S. Joplin of Richmond, visited at the home of Mr. W. D. Hix.

Mrs. P. W. Fore has been confined to her bed for the last month.

Mr. Editor we send our best wish for a prosperous year for you and the TIMES

The First Requisite of Beauty.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow blotched complexion as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the sure way

Full stock of Parlor, Stove Polish always in stock. Manufacturers of Brown and other Grades

UNDER

We have always on hand and all styles of Cas or Wood. All orde and careful attention Persons living in Appomattox County wishing to have work done can call on me

NOTICE!

Sewing Machines, Lar

ATTENTION, MERCHANTS

Hebron.

The happy days of Christmas have passed and we suppose it will not be out of order to give your readers a hurried report of the proceedings of the week in this community.

Sunday we had a fine sermon at Hebron by the pastor. There was also preaching at Bethel by Rev. Mr. Cary, of Maryland, which, judging from those we have heard from him previously, we infer was good also. Monday night quite a number of young people were entertained at "Silverwood," the home of Mrs. McIver. Among the guests were Messrs. Vaughan Horsley and Hermon Taylor, Mr. Malcom Ganaway and Miss Sallie LeGrande, of Lynchburg. Mr. Norman Taylor of Norfolk, Mr. B. Jennings, of Richmond College. Delightful music on the violin was furnished by Messrs. Norman Taylor and Gannaway. Cheerful conversation and interesting games were kept up until about 11 p. m. when they were invited in to partake of refreshments. All said it was an enjoyable evening. Tuesday a. m. there was a Christmas tree at Bethel which is reported as quite a success. On Wednesday there was a very interesting entertainment at Hebron. The program was well-arranged—prayer by pastor,—talk by Prof. George Davidson, of the University—delightful singing by the choir, a solo by Dr. Whitehead—recitations by children and last, but not least with the children, Old Santa appeared and distributed bountiful bags of confectionaries. These moral and religious occasions have seemed sufficient to satisfy our young people as we have heard of nothing inappropriate to the name of Christmas. Thursday the heavy rain stopped all traveling. Friday there was a doll party at Mrs. Marshal Stratton's, which of course the little tots enjoyed. Our week of pleasure has not, however been without it's shadow. Miss Lou Stratton, is most seriously sick as very sick at her sister's, Mrs. Wade Carson. Her sister, Miss Annie who has been in Lynchburg for some time, has been called to her bedside. We trust her useful life may be spared.

Mrs. Bernard Chick has also been very ill, but is somewhat better now.

Miss Mabel Davidson, of Woman's College is spending Christmas at the Pastorium, so much improved in health.

We have missed our Capt Stratton, who has been in your town attending to business.

How we pity our poor Rural Carriers—not one day off. Uncle Sam ought to be more considerate of their pleasure. Some little token of remembrance in the boxes we imagine would brighten the monotonous life.

As usual, I suppose many New Year resolutions are being made. May we not only make them but keep them, and may the New Year bring many blessings to both editor and readers.

When you leave home let the TIMES follow you.

Send us your Job Printing.

FREE FREE

To all our subscribers who will pay up back dues and one year in advance we will send either of the following papers one year free:

Metropolitan and Rural Home

See full advertisement of this paper on page 5

Farm and Fireside

A well known Agricultural paper.

New York Tribune Farmer

One of the best Agricultural weeklies published.

Decide promptly, this offer is limited to a short time. Address

TIMES

WEST APPOMATTOX, VA.